

What is 'climate'?

- Climate is 'average weather'
  - and its variability
  - for a particular region
  - over a period of time
- Climate includes many different elements at a variety of spatial and temporal scales
  - Temperature, precipitation, evapotranspiration, wind, complex extremes (droughts, floods), large-scale circulation, sea surface temperatures, etc.